The large base post should be sited furthest away from the carriageway (the exception is for school flashing signs – see below).

Where possible and where legend allows, the supplementary plate should be the same width as the main plate, but do not break the design rules to achieve this.

Where it is impractical for the main posts to reach the upper stiffener channel rail, use a stub/stiffener post as shown.