

Effective Subject Leadership

— a one day course for subject/middle leaders in all phases

Tuesday January 28th 2020 – 9.00am to 3.00pm, at Forest Way School

“Every teacher needs to improve, not because they are not good enough, but because they can be even better” (Dylan William 2012)

Led by Gill Weston

Gill Weston has over 30 years successful experience in primary education, much of which has been Leicestershire. Roles have included Assistant Director of Children’s Services for Education, Learning and Skills, Primary Strategy Manager, School Improvement Partner and Adviser, and Improvement and Development Officer for children’s centres. Gill is now a freelance education consultant working across the Midlands region, with school leadership teams in a range of partnerships including teaching school alliances, multi-academy trusts and local collaborative groups.

The Aims of this course

- Understanding approaches to coherent curriculum design
- Developing pedagogical practices to support long term learning for pupils
- The importance of reading within the whole curriculum experience
- Approaching subject leadership to improve practice of others
- Gathering evidence to evaluate the impact of your work
- Planning for improvement

Delegates will have the opportunity to explore evidence based approaches and recent research into curriculum design, cognitive science, great teaching, reading development and leadership practice.

This session will benefit those who are working to develop aspects of curriculum leadership who want to build additional professional learning into their planned programme.
