

SENCO Network Meetings 2019/20

These termly twilight meetings have been running successfully for over 15 years and are well attended by mainstream primary and secondary SENCOs who value them as an opportunity to keep up to date with national and local developments related to SEND and to share local good practice.

- National and regional updates in relation to SEND from the DfE, Ofsted, NASEN, latest research and links to new SEND resources.
- Regularly attended by SENA, Psychology Service, Specialist Teaching Services, Health and Social Care representatives who provide important updates regarding their services and answer questions.
- Sharing good practice from other local schools.
- Comprehensive briefing paper provided at each meeting with web links and guidance materials.
- LA teams available to answer queries related to issues arising and follow up on requests for information and support.
- Organised and facilitated by Kate Browning and Pat Bullen; distinct from any other SENCO network group.

£40 per school per meeting or £115 for all 3 meetings if booked together in the Autumn Term

SENCOs can bring one additional member of staff at no extra cost - Refreshments included

To book a place on a network meeting go to our website: <http://www.forestwaytsa.org/senco-training-and-events.html> and complete the booking on-line.
